HALLUCINATIONS.

1.
... and there, one day, here, no day,
Impossible voice, being a beam of light, voiceless, void and sombre.
In short time, all will come to an end.

Here is blank, no trace of movement.
No whisper, the breath of a lone voice.
It exhales in vain, and creates nothing.

3.

The mouth grieves for words,
in the agéd head,
worn out with hearing.

4.

The voice of no one; no one is there.
A mouthless voice, a sort of listening,
something impelled to hear.
