tekst: Grethe Ørbeck • musikk: Kristin Holm

The main person (the soprano) should be surrounded by the voices (the alto and the baryton), so that she seems to be threaten.
The audience should surround the circle.

JEG HUSKER ALT

Jeg husker alt. Jeg husker hver bevegelse, det var derfor jeg var kommet. Det første jeg så var natur, jeg så en blomst, en rose. Jeg valgte rosen. Det krevdes tålmodighet, veien inn til den var lang. Blomsten var liv, ville liv, den lystet meg opp rosen strakte seg mot lyset. Det var her jeg begynte.

" Vi kan ikke stå til ansvar for hvorfor De er her. Deres liv er Deres eget. Ingen har bedt Dem komme. Deres vesen, lik et barns, tyder på forventninger om en jublende velkomst. Hva får Dem til å tenke dette? Har De fulgt lovene, er De avholdt, og har De et menneskes frihet. Hvorfor kommer De til oss?"

Hadde jeg vært her før? Noe virket kjent, var det farven? Istedet for å flykte valgte jeg å eksperimentere med den, finne ut hva den ville. Jeg hadde en baktanke. Jeg ønsket at farven skulle velge meg. For at den skulle finne meg, måtte jeg lete i dens fortid før fødsel. Søke et uttrykk i signaler farven skulle sende inn til meg, for å skape en dialog. Veien inn til meg var lang. Farven var tålmodig. Farven hadde all verdens tid, og den kjente min baktanke.

" De har ingenting å si om Deres ankomst. De har ikke gitt Dem til kjenne. Hvem De var eller ikke var, det angår oss ikke. Vi har latt en annen betydning av Dem tre helt frem i en glassplate som stadig er i bevegelse. Den gir lyden: forbi, gjennom, forbi."

"Dette rommet som De nå har sett, skal De snart glemme."

Stemmen talte. Og når den talte var det for å bekrefte det som var rommets eneste vilje.

" Tanken er ikke fjernere enn at De kan løfte hånden å holde den på Deres hode. Da dekker De avstanden for tanken så tanken ikke skal røpe Dem. Kanskje De ser dette som et svar, som De kan kalle Deres eget?"

" For å etterkomme svarets krav, må De gi avkall på Dem selv, bli ett med det, for at svaret skal redde Dem."

" Vi forstår Deres, Deres desperasjon. Det er det eneste vi forstår. De snakker, når De snakker er det alltid om Deres rett. Bare det at De eksisterer, gir Dem likevel ingen rett."

Rosen var falt fra hverandre. Den ble til flammende ild, tre flammende soler, skjelvende i en høy glassflate. Aggressive soler hvesende mot meg: " blått, rødt, ikke grønt." De var på alle sider, rundt meg i sirkel, over meg i svimlende fart: " blått, rødt ikke grønt." Glassflaten hadde igjen kommet i bevegelse, plasseringen av solene skiftet i forhold til hverandre. Solene var roser.

" Når De så Dem selv, hvordan kunne De da la være å elske Dem selv? Siden dette mislyktes hvorfor tok De det for gitt at vi straks elsket Dem?"

Jeg så dem som flyvende insekter, som kaltes frem når de kom så nær at de kjente skyggen av hverandre. Dette skjedde når jeg belyste dem, men ikke uten problem; de kom ikke av seg selv.

" Ingenting vakrere enn mennesket, menneskets kraftfulle styrke, søken til det gode, et menneskets vilje, det frie menneske, halvt livet, halvt døden. De er vakker. De kunne vært dette menneske. Hvor er Deres hund? Hvorfor går De stadig med en hunds tomme halsbånd? Er det Deres søken? Eller søker De en domstol? Hvorfor kjenner De Dem så rettsløs?"

Jeg hadde skapt en fødselsbolig i en glassflate. Men først når det var gitt boligen en organisk kjerne kunne farven undersøke om mitt indre ville leve, da først var det.

" Forbi, gjennom, forbi."

Jeg hadde vært her før. Her hadde jeg sprunget ut, her var min tilblivelse. Trærne, frukten og rosen, med alle bladene som hadde ropt at de var glemt. Uten dem ville ingen rose la seg føde. De hadde et ønske; å bli hentet frem. Sakte lot de seg fremkalle, åpenbart mer villige, litt usikre, febrilsk sprikende, men glade og viljesterke. De hadde en samlet erfaring, en roses fødsel.

Det haster. Den lekende lettheten trengtes fordi de var mange. Som kinesiske tegn i forrykt tempo, pinlig nøyaktig på rad, kjempet de for å komme til liv. Det ble flere roser, flere blad. Blomstene og bladene beveget seg, de ville meg noe. Kanskje var det gråt, i all fall hørte jeg skrik.

" Enhver lever sitt eget skrik, sin egen undergang. Det forunder oss at De ser noe heroisk i dette, så menneskelig gjenkjennende som selve livet, døden. Kan det være til noen nytte, når den sterkeste støvbærer som bærer sitt støv, ikke vil høre tale om vinden! Hvem er det som snakker om det gjenkjennelige ved mennesket?"

De gjør det ikke. Deres naboer, Deres venner gjør det ikke. Og slett ikke Deres embedsbror."

" Ser De denne hunden. Den kommer ingensteds fra. Nattens drømmer lever denne hunden. Hver bevegelse, hvert blikk, den gode og onde hånd, hvert slag og spark. Drømmen om Mennesket. Den bærer ikke ytre prakt. Som fredløs har den krysset landegrensene, ødemarker, uttørrede stepper, svømt over røde elver som delte seg i alle retninger. Den stjeler som et dyr, sniker seg langs bymurene i lyset fra dagen, fortærer sitt bytte i bugnende frukthaver, fører seg meg en uforskammethet som bringer til og med den som vil den vel ut av fatning. Ingenting vakrere enn denne hund. Hundens kraftfulle styrke og søken. Mer enn menneskets vilje. Mennesket er ondt fordi det til slutt finner seg i alt."

Parlando

Det haster. Den lekende lettheten brygtes fordi de var mangel. Sam kinesiske tegn i forrykt tempo, pinklig nysgerrig på rad, kjempet de for å komme til liv.
Det ble flere roser, flere blad. Blomstene og bladene bevæget meg, de ville meg noe. Kanskje var det gråt, i alle fall hørt jeg skrik.
