DUE MARTELLI

OR AS ONE NAIL BY STRENGTH DRIVES OUT ANOTHER, SO THE REMEMBRANCE OF MY FORMER LOVE IS BY A NEWER OBJECT QUITE FORGOTTEN.

~ SHAKESPEARE SAID.

COMMENT ON THE TECHNIQUE OF WRITING:

There are two staves for each instrument, the upper giving the pitches, the cover showing a kind of tabulatura, i.e. telling the player what string to play at a given instant. Thus, the point of the work is to be found in the contin-uous complexity of the rhythmic intricacities of the tabulatura, while the pitches are relative to this. The work should be played with the two hands doing separate activities. The left hand should be doing continuous glissando as much as possible or suitable.

The performer may be confused by the fact that there are chords given along the upper stave, while he/she is only supposed to play across one or two strings. This has to do with the fact that the continuous glissando in the left hand will always change position. This is indicated in the score by telling the performer whereabout he/she is supposed to enter when playing on the string, i.e. in the middle of what kind of glissando.
