

CLEMET ROTEVATN

AND THE MOIST STAR WAS SICK
ALMOST TO DOOMSDAY WITH ECLIPSE

for solo classical guitar

duration: ca. 15'

2013-2014

TO CHRISTINA SANDSENGEN

This is a piece in one movement. The compositional process is based on the main "theme", which is the arpeggio-like bars named "the moist star", being unstable in various ways, and therefore sick (almost to doomsday with eclipse). The piece starts with the "eclipse" and "doomsday" themes which serve as an intro, but also later in the piece serve as interruptions to the main "moist star" theme.

It is important to let the ambiguity of the harmonies and rhythmic patterns emerge clearly.

The fermatas indicate places of free timing-interpretation. It is also over all in the piece important that the rhythmic patterns and tempi don't have a metronomic regularness to them, but that the rhythmic patterns and flow is organic. The fermatas also have the role of "breaking" the tempo / pulse.

"And the moist star was sick almost to doomsday with eclipse" is a quote from William Shakespeare's play "Hamlet".

PERFORMANCE NOTES

Natural harmonics are indicated with the string number and where the node is to be played. The sounding pitch is not notated.

Artificial harmonic produced by touching the written node and playing the string with the right hand while pressing the note one octave lower with the left hand.

Triangle - Short fermata. Square - Long fermata.

GENERAL

- ⑥ Number of which string to be used (6 is the lowest, 1 is the highest)
- sul pont. Right hand near the bridge
- ord. Right hand in normal playing position
