R'arier for en kjole (changing identities)

Music for a singer and girls' choir à capella

by Synne Skouen (2009)

R'arier for en kjole (or "Peculi'arias for a costume") was first planned as a solowork by and for Ruth Wilhelmine Meyer and a dress designed by Marit Eken Kalager. Then Teskjekjerringoperaen in Lillehammer adopted it and developed the idea further by adding a girls' choir and the choreographer Sølvi Edvardsen to the project.

It is a nonverbal composition. Except for some abstract letters in the choir's parts, it is left to the performer – in tune with the choreographer/director or conductor – to find the suitable character.

The music is composed with a grant from Norsk kulturråd (Arts Council Norway), attended to the second secon

Sorl 1-4 (pages 11,12,16) were worked out by Ruth Wilhelmine Meyer for the first production of R'arier, in Lillehammer, October 2009.

Total durata: +- 30 minutes
